

“ The congregation of Barton Stone-Mount Hope United, chose to celebrate 100 years of The United Church of Canada by covering travel costs for an Indigenous student to attend Sandy-Saulteaux Spiritual Centre.
We offer you a friendly challenge. Will you join us and make a gift? ”
Nya:weh, Chi Meegwich... Rev. Lee Claus

What is the Sandy-Saulteaux Spiritual Centre?

The Centre works for reconciliation across Canada by training Indigenous leaders for ministry in ways that honour traditional worldviews and support wellbeing in communities.

"It's one of the most important things the church is doing right now." (that's a quote from a donor!)

You can answer prayers for healing and justice

Travel costs approximately $4,800 per year per student over 5 years. Even though they have the desire to enter ministry, many students need financial support to travel to SSSC to learn about, and do the hard work of undoing the damage that our forebearers and governments did in colonial times.

Showing the church a path to reconciliation
SSSC students are building up Indigenous communities. When Indigenous communities are strengthened, that moves us all closer to reconciliation.

Will you join Barton Stone-Mount Hope United and give?
Your gift will help cover student travel costs and build a hopeful future for our church.

☒ Yes! I will give to support Indigenous student ministers.
