

Join Our Circle: Keeper of the Learning Pathway

Full-Time (1.0 FTE) | Three-Year Term

“Every path begins with a single step. Every journey is strengthened by those who walk beside us.”

At Sandy-Saulteaux Spiritual Centre, we believe ministry is a lifelong journey of relationship—with Creator, the land, community, and one another.

We are seeking a Keeper of the Learning Pathway to accompany students as they discover their gifts, discern their calling, and grow into spiritual helpers and leaders. You will help weave circles of belonging with Vision Keepers, Elders, graduates, communities, and theological partners, ensuring that every learner is supported before, between, and beyond the Learning Circles.

Together with partners across Canada, you will help cultivate collaborative learning circles and online opportunities for continuing education, nurturing a community of lifelong learning that extends well beyond the classroom.

We are seeking someone who believes learning begins in relationship and that wisdom is gathered through study, lived experience, the teachings of Elders, the stories of the land, and the relationships that shape who we are. If you are called to walk alongside others in a good way, nurturing hope, healing, and belonging, we invite you to join our circle.

What we offer in good relationship

- A collaborative position rooted in relationship, ceremony, and community
- Opportunities for lifelong learning and professional growth
- Time to nurture your own spirit through ceremony and land-based learning
- Hybrid work, competitive compensation, and benefits
